

Sonoran Desert

By Santiago Prieto

Beautiful Sonoran Desert you have teem with life even though many people believe you are barren.

It varies from squirrels to hawks, from geckos to deer.

You are tremendously beautiful, that is for sure.

Beautiful Sonoran Desert your sunrises and sunsets are unrivaled by any other.

Your plants are unique, yet mystique.

Your animals are magnificent yet mysterious.

Some are dangerous yet fascinating.

Beautiful Sonoran you're beauty at its finest.

And I call this beauty home.
